

2017 Toy Wish List: KRM Louisville

Infants, Toddlers and Preschoolers:

- Fisher Price Little People sets (such as farm animals, train, school bus)
- Plastic play food and doctor play sets
- Baby dolls
- Big (“chunky”) dump trucks/fire engines/tractors/vehicles
- Building blocks (big duplo-sized, mega bloks or wooden blocks or fabric blocks)
- Play doh
- Rattles and infant activity toys (such as pop-up play sets or cause and effect discovery toys)

We advise avoiding anything that is electronic or requires batteries. We like to encourage imaginative, active play – many ‘classic’ toys fit that description (shape sorters, xylophone or piano baby toys, magnadoodle, Mr. Potato Head, and toy musical instruments).

Elementary school-aged:

- Jump ropes, hula hoops, football, basketball and soccer balls
- Craft kits and art supplies
- Building kits such as Lego or Megablocks
- Toy cars
- Play figures/action figures (Doc McStuffins, Littlest Pet Shop, Spiderman, Star Wars)
- Pokemon cards
- Games that don’t require a lot of reading in English: Connect 4, Jenga, Twister
