

Kentucky Refugee Ministries, Louisville Legal Caseworker (full-time)

The Immigration Legal Services Office at KRM Louisville is currently comprised of three attorneys, two Department of Justice (DOJ) accredited representatives, and a legal caseworker. Due to increased demand for our services we are adding a second legal caseworker –one fluent in Spanish—to our team.

The legal services office handles a variety of cases including, but not limited to: family based immigrant visa petitions, consular processing, citizenship, refugee based adjustment of status cases, Cuban Adjustment Act (“CAA”) based adjustment of status cases, processing of CAA based Employment Authorization Documents (“EAD”), marriage based adjustment of status cases, representation in removal proceedings, affirmative as well as defensive asylum applications, Special Immigrant Juvenile Status cases, and other non-employment based immigration legal matters with a focus on humanitarian cases.

KRM is one of only three agencies in the Commonwealth of Kentucky that provides low cost immigration legal services to refugees and immigrants. As such, the legal staff have high caseloads. The position of Legal Caseworker was created to provide administrative support to the attorneys and DOJ representatives. The legal caseworker is responsible for clerical/administrative tasks which include the maintenance of legal services office client files, assisting in improving the office’s electronic filing and case management system, meeting with legal services office clients to follow up case work, maintaining and updating several spreadsheets tracking legal services offices case work, and other administrative duties. The legal caseworker position is also designed to incorporate the overall mission of KRM and includes direct client services. This position will work on a wide variety of immigration cases.

An ideal candidate for this position should have an established commitment to social justice. In addition to serving KRM’s main refugee and Cuban clients, the legal office provides services to clients who are neither refugees nor Cuban nationals.
