

Kentucky Refugee Ministries, Covington Youth & School Support Specialist (Part-time)

Summary

As part of the KRM Covington staff, the Youth & School Support Specialist will provide educational and out-of-school-time support services to school-aged refugee and immigrant children and their families. The Youth & School Support Specialist will collaborate closely with the Case Manager, caseworkers, and the Youth Services Coordinator to ensure that students and their families receive the educational assistance needed to support their academic success and social-emotional development.

The Kentucky Refugee Ministries (KRM) provides holistic services, case management, and intentionally designed programming for refugee students and their families. KRM Covington is on track to resettle approximately 40 school-aged children and their families in the next year. These students and their families have varying levels of English proficiency—some speaking little or no English—as well as diverse educational and cultural backgrounds. Our Case Manager and Director currently assist families with school registration and placement, school-related documentation, parent-teacher conferences, and ongoing case management. The Youth & School Support Specialist will essentially support the Youth Services Coordinator with leading all youth-related programming, provide educational case management, and assist in developing KRM's out-of-school-time programming and community outreach efforts as part of the Youth Services initiatives.

Essential Duties and Tasks

The Youth & School Support Specialist will be responsible for the following tasks:

- Support school registrations (as needed)
- Liaise with local school district staff and teachers regarding student and family needs
- Work collaboratively with the Case Manager and the rest of the staff on educational case management and client services
- Coordinate and support KRM's out-of-school-time programming initiatives (as noted above)

- Work closely with staff to identify possible program participants and help coordinate program volunteers
- Track Youth Services program activities and outcomes and maintain communication with families on an ongoing basis in order to evaluate program success and survey the needs and interests of current clients
- Enter case notes on a regular basis, documenting services, orientations, program participation, and student progress
- Plan regularly with staff and participate in weekly staff meetings, activities and professional development opportunities
- Work collaboratively with other staff to draft grant proposals and complete grant reports specifically targeting Family and Youth Services programming
- Participate in department-related community outreach activities
- Assist in conducting an annual comprehensive survey with program participants

Job Requirements

- College degree required
- Demonstrated and verifiable direct services experience working with children and youth
- Strong computer skills; including proficiency in MS Excel, Word and Google Suite
- Possesses reliable transportation to transport clients/ perform offsite duties as needed
- Teaching experience and previous cross-cultural experience preferred, particularly in a social service or educational setting

Specialized Skills

- Ability to work with clients and staff of diverse nationalities, religions, languages, and cultures
- Passion for serving limited-English-proficient clients, particularly children and youth, and helping them obtain needed services and programming
- Strong presentation, oral and written communication skills
- Self-motivated; ability to develop and implement new and innovative projects
- Organized and detail-oriented; capacity to provide clear documentation of services
- Team-orientation; ability to work in coordination and close collaboration with KRM staff
- Strong outreach skills; ability to network with educational providers and community partners
- Patience and strong commitment to client care, while at the same time adhering to agency mission of promoting client self-sufficiency
- Personal resiliency to endure stressful situations relating to client case

- management, or program implementation during peak caseload periods
- Commitment to ethical conduct, maintaining appropriate boundaries with clients, and respecting client autonomy

Work Arrangements

Currently, this is a hybrid position, with some in-office and fieldwork required and limited in-person client interaction conducted in compliance with COVID-safety protocols. Pending a continued reduction in community COVID-exposure risk and increase in vaccinations, KRM's staff requirement for in-office work may increase.

Agency Profile

Founded in 1990 as a nonprofit agency in Louisville, Kentucky Refugee Ministries (KRM) is a local affiliate of Church World Service, one of nine national voluntary agencies authorized to provide resettlement services to refugees legally admitted to the United States through the State Department's Refugee Admissions Program. KRM's Lexington sub-office was founded in 1998; a Northern Kentucky office in Covington opened in November 2021. KRM assists refugees, Afghan evacuees, Cuban Entrants, and individuals from various countries who have been approved for asylum or are applying for asylum.

KRM secures housing and medical care for clients and provides them with comprehensive case management including employment services, ESL and cultural orientation, and specialized programs for immigrant youth and elders, victims of crime, as well as arts and culture programming. The agency also offers citizenship classes for legal permanent residents preparing to apply for U.S. citizenship. KRM's Louisville office has an immigration legal services team who provide services to immigrants of all statuses. KRM staff do not engage in any religious messaging in connection to delivery of client services.

Compensation and Benefits

This is a part-time position, 20 hours a week. Compensation is commensurate with experience and background. Duties will be conducted primarily during normal business hours, with some evenings or weekends necessary (on a flextime schedule) to accommodate out-of-school-time activities or volunteer and student/family meetings.

To Apply

Interested applicants should reply with a résumé and cover letter by Tuesday, August 23rd, to:

Wilson Mejia
Resettlement Director
Kentucky Refugee Ministries
321 W. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
Covington, KY 41011

Email: wmejia@kyrm.org

Those who have previously applied for a position at KRM are eligible to reapply. Only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.